What financial problems is that?

i guess that's my question...german media speculated about alleged financial problems in ikast.

If it was last year, I could understand the question. Ikast fired two coaches in a couple of months, which was a huge drain on the finances. They ended that financial year ca 130.000 Euro in the red, but this year they have ended in the black, although only by a few thousand.

They have now completed the makeover of their arena, so it can now take about 500 more spectators, which will surely add to their financial strenghts. I am also certain, that their new signings (Fanny Lagerström, Ragnhild Aamodt and A. K. Henriksen) have not added to the costs when compared to the ones, who have left (Kristine Andersen, Josephine Tourey and Ana Vojcic).

I do not have any insights into the financial situation of Ikast though, so I am merely expressing my surprice that Ikast should be in any trouble – are you sure it was not Aalborg (ADH) that was mentioned??? they have had an interesting start to the year in financial terms (to say the least).

Has anyone seen Viborg vs Sonderjyske? That looks like a respectable result for the underdogs. And Rokic has really good stats!
Ouch @ Randers. What a massacre!

It was quite surprising that Sønderjyske managed to pressure Viborg that much – the score was 25–23 at one point. But that’s how it goes in the Danish league – all the teams are good, so every once in a while the TOP–4 teams will stumble. Luckily it didn’t cost Viborg any points...

Randers played really horrible – they must have had a bad day, cause nothing worked. Slagelse played all second half with Isabella Thomsen on goal and she did excellent. Only 9 goals against her in that half – she saved penalties, 100% chances and made some great long passes for Savic in fast breaks. She will be very good in the future 😎. Slagelse didn’t even play well and the team was without Turey, Hørlykke, Budimir and Kliukaite.

Results from the last three matches of round 2.

It's a surprise that KIF Vejen managed to win, but great to see that NT rightback Anette Bonde scored 9 goals. Boeva's stats are not so good this time.

Also worth mentioning is that Aalborg was pretty lucky to win in Copenhagen – they were down 27–26, but the match ended 27–28 for Aalborg.

Very good stats for most of our girls, I'm glad they're doing well. 😊
Is Suzana Cubela playing at all?
And how come Ikast allowed 33 goals? 😞 Who was the keeper?

Gro Hammerseng of Ikast (and Norway) is out for the rest of the season. She was injured in her knee in the match against Esbjerg. After an examination it was determined that she wouldn't be playing handball again until next summer – following surgery and a long re-training.

This is really sad, she was such an elegant player, in all possible meanings of the word.

Ikast-Bording are possibly looking for a replacement – some danish media speculate that the club will try to convince the recently retired Kristine Andersen to make a comeback. This doesn't seem likely, but who knows.

The danish news-site europamester.dk reports that Ikast-Bording has sent out a statement that two former profiles of the club will help out after the injury of Hammerseng. Åsa Eriksson and Kristine Andersen will be helping the club for the following 3–4 matches. This isn't a permanent solution however. The club has apparently insured Hammerseng, so they will get some of her wages from an insurance company. So it seems likely that a replacement will come. Who then?

update – now it's on Ikast-Bordings website:

Ikast have two ordinary playmakers in Henriksson and Milanovic...and i think that Batinic is also capable to play playmaker.

Its great to see such a world players as Kriss and Åsa do comeback in the ikast team. Both are gone fit well in the squad.

Sønderjyske vs. KIF Vejen 21-33 (12-18)

SE: Susan Andersen 5, Tine Mikkelsen 3, Åsa Könsberg 3, Gro Knutsen 3, Alena Polaskova 2, Marina Rokic 2, Cecilie Thorsteinsen 1, Krisztina Hajdu 1, Maria Hansen 1

Tilskuere: 800

Great to see Lene Thomsen getting into gear. Right back Anette Bonde seems to be sure in the Danish WC-squad if se can keep her current level. Nice to see the young talented Tine Mikkelsen getting on the score-board again and again this season.

Horsens HK vs. GOG/Svendborg TGI 32-25 (15-16)

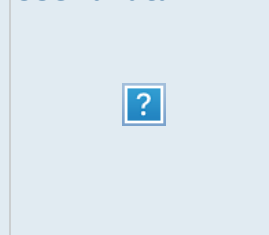

HHK: Jane Wangsøe 6, Christina Kørup Pedersen 6, Christina Kristensen 5, Mette Sjøberg 4, Ditte Andersen 4, Annika Wiel Fredén 4, Mia Falk 3.
GOG: Anna Kareeva 7, Winnie Mølgaard 4, Malene Dalgaard 4, Pearl van der Wissel 3, Aiko Hayafune 3, Stinne Bossen 2, Anette Hovind Johansen 1, Anette Knudsen 1
Tilskuere: 512

Mette Sjøberg has had a slow start to this season, but could be on her way to find her feet again. Once again I must say... Christina Kørup Pedersen should be in the national jersey - she's such a gifted and clever player 😏 . GOG could face a hard time this season. Young Malene Dalgaard finally got her chance when Feijen got injured.

This season... talents will shine:

Nikoline Nielsen, Lærke Møller, Lotte Grigel, Camilla Dalby, Susan Thorsgaard, Louise Lyksborg, Line Jørgensen, Mie Augustesen, Mia Møldrup, Maria Fisker, AK, Natascha Ohlendorff, Sabina Rasmussen

Well now, there is no reason to be humble Rasmus. Viborgs chances are approximately 85–90 percentage. I really can't see any of the other teams threatening the green in this years pokal–turnering..

Where do I find a Danish version of Andryushina?

Yeah, the only danger for Viborg is maybe thinking they've won it already. That combined with GOG or FCK on a home-pitch could tip the scales - though that's a long-shot, and the cup should be Viborgs now.

Anyway, congrats to Viborg they played really great. I must say, for me Viborg is the epitomy of a classic handball team. I'm a slagelse-fan, but Viborg will always have a special place for me also.

That said, it'll be interesting to see if this Viborg-locomotive can be stopped when the "sleeping bear" Slagelse DT welcomes them (in roskilde 🐻) on sunday. Traditionally Slagelse DT starts up slow - it was around this time last year that they got a hammering defeat of 13-14 goals in Aalborg.

But if Anja plays her (red) cards right (pun intended), Viborg could be going down 😊 after all, Slagelse DT hasn't really been tested this season, so no-one really knows what tricks are up Anja's sleeve when the * hits the fan. And the players should be supermotivated...

Ok, stop ranting, thank you

Aalborg DH - Fredrikshavn FOX 29-26(17-13)

Aalborg: Marianne Rokne 7(3), Matilda Boson 6, Louise Pedersen 5, Louise Mortensen 4, Isabel Blanco 2, Natalia Deriouguina 2, Kristine Lunde 2 and Rikke Nielsen 1

FOX: Anja Kristensen 13(3), Lina Möller 4, Lene Kragh 3, Johanna Wiberg 3, Alexandra Möller 2 and Gitte Aaen 1

Surprising that FOX could keep up for so long. Anja Kristensen is showing great form from leftback-position - so far she is topscorer with 36 goals in 5 matches. A big mistake that Pytlich doesn't have her in the brutto-squad for the WC - she is way better than players like Winnie Mølgård and Rikke Nielsen - AND she is younger....

Slagelse beat Viborg without breaking a sweat 😞 I thought Viborg could have put up a better fight, but Leganger totally neutralized the back-players. I had a feeling that Viborg´s backcourt will get in troubles against a solid defence and a good keeper, and they really did today. Heidi Astrup was a disaster both in the attack and in the defence.

In the defence Lungu used her physic to overpower Astrup several times. Best players from Slagelse were the usual trio – Popovic, Lungu and Leganger 😞 Savic missed a lot of chances today, but Turey played very well.

From Viborg only wingplayers Nørgård and Varzaru did well and then of course Charlotte Højfeldt, who did really great as a pivot. Louise Bager was very strong in the last 15 minutes of the game and she even scored a goal.

I can´t see any team preventing Slagelse from taking the CL-tropee.

Slagelse DT – Viborg HK 31–25(16–11)

Slagelse: Lungu 10(1/1), Popovic 8(2/2), Turey 4, Savic 3, Bennedsen 2, Hørlykke 2, Melgård 1 and Poltoratskaya 1(0/1)

Viborg: Charlotte Højfeldt 6, Ann Grethe Nørgård 5(3/4), Cristina Varzaru 4, Rikke Skov 3, Henriette Mikkelsen 2, Grit Jurack 2, Isabel Ortuno 1, Heidi Astrup 1(0/1) and Louise Bager Nørgård 1

Bager might be the only player in the world with perfect record against Leganger. 4 shots – 4 goals on Leganger – impressive.

This season... talents will shine:

Nikoline Nielsen, Lærke Møller, Lotte Grigel, Camilla Dalby, Susan Thorsgaard, Louise

After a good start KIF Vejen stumbles against Esbjerg – I still think there is a good chance that KIF Vejen won´t survive in the league, but we will see.
