RHK: Camilla Dalby 5 😊, Berit Kristensen 4, Katrine Fruelund 4, Mia Falk 4 😊, Mie Augustesen 4 😊, Ann Grete Nørgaard 4 (2).

Attendance: 1.241.

Many Danish scorers... only Danes for Randers HK.

Randers went in front 1–7 after 6 minutes with Dalby, Augustesen and Falk in excelent condition... it was great handball.

Then timeout for SK Aarhus who then went up with 11–10 and continued to 19–12 (haltime). In the 2nd half Randers came back to 25–22, but with 5 minutes remaining SK Aarhus secured a deserved victory.

SK Aarhus made the better of a weak Randers attack. Lot's of fast breaks for Touray and Brøgger. Great passes from Karin Mortensen who must be high on the assists–ranking. In the attack Trine Troelsen was the best on left back.

Although Dalby scored 5 goals... it was probably the worst match I have ever seen her play. However the Randers attack didn't work all together so she was pushed to shots in many terrible situations. Berit Kristensen did well on her own, but couldn't keep the Randers attack together and make them play with flow. Fruelund with a few breakthroughs and goals on her won.

A match with many technical fouls... the best players:

Randers HK: Mia Falk and Mie Augustesen.

SK Århus: Josephine Touray and Trine Troelsen.

Foreign players: Medved did okay. Bódi and Tapai was terrible. The Koreans did under average for their standard. Goalkeepers Masson and Pedersen did okay for Randers. Wörz was horrible. Cecotka did okay.
